///WELCOME

Honor Native American Heritage Month this November

Native American Heritage Month is dedicated to celebrating the diverse culture, history, and traditions of the Native people. November was officially declared Native American Heritage Month in 1990 by former President George H. W. Bush.

Check out nativeamericanheritagemonth.gov/about.html to learn more. The website is a collaborative project of the Library of Congress and the National Endowment for the Humanities, National Gallery of Art, National Park Service, Smithsonian Institution, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and U.S. National Archives and Records Administration.

///UPDATES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

November LGBTQ+ Book Recs.

A Two-Spirit Journey: The Autobiography of a Lesbian Ojibwa-Cree Elder

TAGS: Queer, Trans, Lesbian, Memoir, Native, Indigenous, Two-Spirit

A Two-Spirit Journey is Ma-Nee Chacaby's extraordinary account of her life as an Ojibwa-Cree lesbian. From her early, often harrowing, memories of life and abuse in a remote Ojibwa community riven by poverty and alcoholism, Chacaby's story is one of enduring and ultimately overcoming the social, economic, and health legacies of colonialism.

Trans Bodies, Trans Selves

TAGS: Education, Trans, Self-Care, Transgender, Non-binary, Gender Nonconforming

There is no one way to be transgender. Trans Bodies, Trans Selves is a revolutionary resource – a comprehensive, reader-friendly guide for transgender people, with each chapter written by transgender and gender expansive authors
