MIT Scholars,

I hope this greeting finds you well, safe and comfortable! As we charter new and unprecedented territory with the Covid 19 virus, know that the Intercultural Engagement team is here to provide you with support, guidance and opportunities to connect with others.

Our team is working hard to create a virtual presence that allows you to find community, learn about available resources, discuss hot topics and interact with your peers.

Please visit LBGTQ+ Services and the Office of Multicultural Programs (OMP) for more information on virtual events and offerings! Please check back for updates.

We will continue to be here for you during these challenging times.

Warmly,

La-Tarri Canty
Associate Dean of Intercultural Engagement/Director of the SPXCE Intercultural Center
TRANS DAY OF VISIBILITY

International Transgender Day of Visibility (TDOV) is an annual event occurring on March 31 dedicated to celebrating trans, non-binary, genderqueer, genderfluid, agender and more gender diverse people and raising awareness of discrimination faced by trans people worldwide, as well as a celebration of their contributions to society.

Although it’s past, you can still check out our social media accounts, and on our website here: lbgtq.mit.edu/digital-content to see words from community members, games, puzzles, book recommendations, and more.

KELLETT ‘47 AWARD

Nominate someone for the Kellett Award.

The John S. W. Kellett ’47 Award recognizes any MIT individual or group for an exceptional and/or sustained commitment to creating a more welcoming environment at MIT, including but not limited to, improving the experience of lesbian, bisexual, gay, transgender (LBGT), and questioning individuals. The award honors Mr. Kellett, whose spirited support has enabled significant improvements in the lives of members of MIT’s LBGT community.

Have someone you think would be great to nominate? Submit your nominations and learn more about the award by going to the website here:

You talked and we listened! In April there was a graduate meeting to talk about hopes, needs, and support specifically focused on graduate students. Find out more about the page by going to our "Stay Connected" tab under the "Graduate Student Opportunities" section.

The full web address is: https://lbgtq.mit.edu/stay-connected/graduate-student-resources

LBGTQ+ Services now also includes a recurring grad specific section for students to advertise grad programs in the newsletter. Email lmcnair@mit.edu if you would like your event advertised in a future newsletter.

LBGTQ + GRAD HANGOUT
Please join MIT Graduate and Post-Doc LBGTQ+ community members in an evening good food and fun games!

Meet new friends and colleagues!

WHEN AND WHERE IS THIS?
Postponed until Fall 2020 semester.
CHOSEN/PREFERRED NAMES ON DIPLOMAS

MIT’s current policy is that students must show documentation of a legal name change to have their chosen/preferred name on their diploma. Or, students can email registrar to have their chosen/preferred name read out loud but their legal name must be on their diploma.

LBGTQ+ Services is working to hopefully change that so students can have their chosen/preferred name on their diploma without a legal name change. Email: lmcnair@mit.edu for info.

PROVINCETOWN, MA RETREAT 2020

LBGTQ+ Services is already planning the 18th annual Provincetown Retreat for 2020. The date will be October 2nd - 4th. The planning committee meetings start every Wednesday, in June from 4-5pm EST.

This is an annual event for LBGTQ+ students (undergrad and grad/post-doc) to build community with each other as well as faculty and staff.

Learn more about it on the website here: lbgtq.mit.edu/programs/annual

LBGTQ+ EDUCATION

There will be two LBGTQ+ Services educational trainings per semester open to faculty and staff who want to learn more about supporting LBGTQ+ populations. All participants will receive the new YAWH trained cards. Check the SPXCE website for sign-ups.

Students interested in LBGTQ+ education can fill out a workshop/training application form on the LBGTQ+ website here:

Gender Inclusive Bathrooms Committee

If you’re interested in being a part of the revamped gender inclusive bathrooms committee for MIT then please email Lauryn McNair, lmcnair@mit.edu for interest and information.

The committee will be looking for students (undergraduate and graduate) as well as faculty and staff.

The first meeting will be scheduled in April based off the availability of members.

Online Queer Communities

Are you building LBGTQ+ virtual communities? Putting together movie nights? Hosting hangouts? Creating chat rooms?

Let LBGTQ+ Services know. We can put it in our emails out to students and advertise it in the newsletter.

We’re always looking for ways to support you, so don’t hesitate to reach out to: lmcnair@mit.edu

Creative Talent Wanted for Musical Event

LBGTQ+ Services is looking for people (students, staff, faculty, YOU) who like to sing, dance, play music, show off your sick beats.

We’re putting together a casual, community music show via Zoom. Either send in a pre-recorded video (2-3 mins) or do it live on April 13th, time TBD.

Email Lauryn for more information: lmcnair@mit.edu
