LBGTQ+ SERVICES

MAY 2019
MONTHLY NEWSLETTER
Guess what (guess what)? It’s almost the end of the semester! Which means a break for some and graduation for others. Don’t forget to RSVP so we can announce you (if you would like) at Lavender Graduation.

Additionally, May is also Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month. There are a lot of great programs going on that celebrate this month, and please stop by the Rainbow Lounge or walk by our board in the Infinite to see queer AAPI contributions and celebrations in our poster series.

PS: This is the last month for family dinners.

Lavender Graduation is a celebration of the end of the year and a recognition of our distinguished graduates from the LBGQT and ally community. This event is open to everyone (MIT staff, students, faculty, alumni), whether you’ve been involved with LBGQT@MIT or not!

All are welcome during this community wide celebration on Friday, May 10th 5:30 - 7:00pm in Rainbow Lounge (50-250).

RSVP HERE: https://tinyurl.com/LavGradMIT

Mondays - Fridays: 10:00am - 8:00pm

Mondays - Fridays: 12:00pm - 7:00pm
What is Lazos?

"Lazo" is one of several Spanish language terms for "bow", referencing the rainbow and experiences that tie us together within and across our communities. Come to the table with other trans and queer people of color (TQPOC) and allies of color at MIT.

When and Where is This?

Date: Wednesday, May 15th
Time: 5:00 - 7:00 PM
Location: SPXCE (W31-110)

What are Family Dinners?

Are you looking to connect with other LBGTQ+ and allying people on campus? Join our weekly Family Dinners for our LBGTQ+ and allying communities to join our first year students, reclaiming a sense of family, support, and solidarity. Open to all - we look forward to seeing you!

When and Where is This?

Date: Thursdays, May 2nd, 9th, 16th
Time: 6:00 - 7:00 PM
Location: Rainbow Lounge (50-250)

---

What is QLAB?

QLAB is an open meeting seeking to enhance the experiences of LBGTQ people at MIT and to ensure that its educational mission is upheld for all students of diverse gender, romantic, and sexual identities. Meetings are once a month and address specific LBGTQ community projects.

When and Where is This?

Date: Tuesday, May 14th
Time: 5:00-6:00 PM
Location: Rainbow Lounge (50-250)
You talked and we listened! In April there was a graduate meeting to talk about hopes, needs, and support specifically focused on graduate students. Find out more about the page by going to our "Stay Connected" tab under the "Graduate Student Opportunities" section.

The full web address is: https://lbgtq.mit.edu/stay-connected/graduate-student-resources

LBGTQ+ Services will also include a grad specific section for students to advertise grad programs in the newsletter. Email lmcnair@mit.edu if you would like your event advertised in a future newsletter.
LBGTQ+ WEBSITE

In addition to the grad resources page there are some new pages in progress:

- Trans Resources
- Understanding Pronouns and Using Pronoun Stickers
- Trans Best Practices

You can find these webpages here: https://lbgtq.mit.edu/resources

Interested in being part of a team to help update the trans.mit.edu website on gender inclusive bathroom locations and other supportive tips? Email lbgt@mit.edu for further details.

QUEER ALUMNX WRITERS

LBGTQ+ Services is working on updating and cataloging out library. In addition to buying books for display in relation to heritage months (check out our Asian America and Pacific Islander section in our new books display), we are buying books by queer MIT alumnx writers to add to our collection.

If you know of anyone who fits that criteria then email lbgt@mit.edu so we can add their work to our collection for people to enjoy!
