it is February and we are just full of programs, events, and programming.

This month we're celebrating Black Heritage Month so please stop by the Rainbow Lounge or SPXCE to see LBGTQ+ book recommendations and queer heroes in celebration.

Additionally, it's aromantic awareness week (Feb. 16 - 22). There will be buttons, book recs, resources, and materials by LBGTQ+ services on the 18th. And be on the lookout for Aces and Aros programs.

Hey y'all this is just a highlight that Family Dinner has changed from THURSDAYS to FRIDAYS.

Nikki (they/she) the LBGTQ+ Graduate Assistant will be taking over the LBGTQ+ Family Dinners and they are here in the evenings on Friday. So Friday it is!

Lazos (the TQPoC family dinner) will still happen once a month on Wednesday. However, LBGTQ+ Services will be collecting feedback about how you think Lazos should be run. Maybe it's a different day, a different time, maybe it's co-hosted by various TQPoC groups. Email lbgt@mit.edu.

FEBRUARY LBGTQ+ BOOK RECS.

SPEAK NO EVIL
by Uzodinma Iweala

TAGS: fiction, gay, coming out, black, queer men

Winner of the Gold Nautilus Award for Fiction, Speak no evil focuses on Niru, a son to conservative Nigerian parents. He has a painful secret: he is queer and no one knows except Meredith, his best friend.

THE COLOR PURPLE
by Alice Walker

TAGS: fiction, queer women, people of color, black, relationships

The Color Purple documents the traumas and gradual triumph of Celie, an African American teenager raised in rural isolation in Georgia, as she comes to resist the paralyzing self-concept forced on her by others.
