NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

November is Native American Heritage Month. The month is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of Native people. Heritage Month is also an opportune time to educate the general public about tribes, to raise a general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present, and the ways in which tribal citizens have worked to conquer these challenges. Check our social media on how we're celebrating LBGTQ+ Native and indigenous figures.

TRANS DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Friday November 20th is Trans Day of Remembrance. TDoR started in 1998 after the death of Rita Hester from Massachusetts, a black trans woman who lost her life to anti-transgender violence. She was the latest in many pubic anti-transgender murders that year. TDoR is a day to memorialize those who have been murdered as a result of transphobia. It is a day to draw attention to the continued violence endured by transgender people, and especially trans BIPOC.

Please join LBGTQ+ Services for a virtual vigil to remember their lives. Details pg. 5.
